ACHIEVEMENTS

In my academic journey, I consistently performed well, achieving an 8.0 CGPA in SSC and 73% in Intermediate. During my BTech, I successfully completed innovative projects in Mechanical Engineering. I've also built strong technical skills in web development, working with technologies like ReactJS, Node.js, Express.js and MongoDB, and developed dynamic web applications as part of my learning journey.

Additionally, I've demonstrated leadership and teamwork skills by leading college projects and organizing events. I'm a quick learner, self-motivated, and have a positive approach toward challenging tasks. I've also taken the initiative to acquire technical and design skills independently, like mastering Photoshop and frontend development tools.
